Minutes
March 16, 2010

Attending: Kim McTighe, Mike Maltese, Steve Phelps, Doreen DeCarli, Alan Slobodien

Guests: Bonnie Smith, Ashley Murphy, Rowina White, Ms. Santora

1. Members and guests introduced themselves. Ms. White represents Set the Rules.org an organization that provides media services and materials for prevention councils throughout the state.
2. Kim reported on the Volley Ball Lock In. 250 RHS students attended with no incidences. The event was co-sponsored by the Prevention Council and SSNAP (Students Seeking New Achievements Positively). Kim also shared information about upcoming awareness events SSNAP will sponsor.
3. Rowina White shared a power point presentation about Set the Rules.org. Her organization utilizes a broad variety of media approaches to prevention of alcohol use. The different media approaches include: radio, television, social networking, billboards, posters, print media etc. None of the information is proprietary and can be duplicated and tagged on with our logo and/or specific message.
4. Steve Phelps reminded those present that the RHS and VCMS athletic departments are presenting a mandatory one-hour presentation by Sarah Panzau on May 6th @ 7p.m. Sarah will share her story as a student athlete who used alcohol and was involved in a life-changing car accident. This event is open to parents as well.
5. Kim shared a poster detailing the parent education sessions with noted speaker John Rosemond taking place at the RHS auditorium on May 2nd. There will be two sessions at 1 and 3pm. This event is sponsored by ERASE. Go to www.erasect.org to purchase tickets or call ERASE at 860-568-4442.
6. The meeting adjourned at 3:30.
